January FRIDAY 22 1858

Joe, Peter, James, Edward, Paul, Charles, and Daniel were my great-grandfathers. The oldest was Tom. I think the second oldest was Peggy and Mary who were girls. But I don't know what became of them.

SUNDAY 24

Both went to Cumberland County where they had 2 sons, Jesse and Tom. Jesse married and died in 1735 and his will is at the courthouse. He had 2 sons, Jesse and Tom. I don't know what became of them. They are like most of the others. I guess they were good old families, but all of them seem to have died away.

Joe Carter married a Miss Henry and lived on a good plantation in King George. I think, and Henry said it was old. The head (uncle) Peter had a big family, but all of them seem to have died away. I think the head (uncle) Peter had a big family, but all of them seem to have died away.
