Brother——— On behalf of the Worshipful Master and brethren of ---- Lodge, I take great pleasure in presenting to you the Lambskin or white leather ampron. It is an emblem of innocence and the badge of a free and accepted Mason, it is an emblem which King Solomon wore when arrayed in all his glory, which invested with additional dignity, other kings Prihyes and rulers.

The citizen toiling in humble poverty, and the Prince commanding the resources of empires, have alike worn it in the consciousness that it has lightened the labors of the one, and added dignity to the power of the other.

It has been eagerly sought and worthierly worn by the best men of your generation. It may be that in coming years upon your head will rest the laurel wreaths of victory, pendent from your breast may hang jewels fit to grace the diadem of an eastern potentate, may, more than these, with light added to the coming light, your ambitious feet may tread round after round of the ladder that leads to fame in our mystic circle; and even the purple of the fraternity may rest on your honored shoulders; but never again from mortal hands, never again until your enfranchised shall have passed upward and inward through the pearly gates, shall any honor so distinguished so emblematical of purity and all perfection be conferred upon you as this which I now bestow, it is yours; yours to wear as a Mason throughout an honorable life, and when at last whether in manhood or old age, your spirit having winged its flight to that House not made with hands eternal ascends to the heavens. When amid the tears and sorrows of surviving relatives and friends and by the hands of sympathizing brother Masons, your body shall be lowered to the confines of that narrow house appointed for all living, it will still be yours, yours to be placed with the evergreen upon the casket that shall enclose your lifeless remains, and with them laid beneath the silent cloths of the valley, let its pure and spotless surface be to you an ever present reminder of a purity of life and rectitude of conduct, an never ending argument for nobler deeds, for higher thought, for greater achievements, and when at last your weary feet shall have come to the end of life's toilsome journey, and from your nerveless grasp shall drop forever the working tools of life, may the record of your life and actions be as pure and spotless as this fair emblem, which I place in your hands tonight, and when your trembling soul shall stand trembling and alone before the great white throne, there to receive judgment for the deeds done while here in the body, may it be your portion to hear from him who sitteth as the Judge supreme those welcome words, well done good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make the ruler over many things, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord,

Dear Mr. Hart:

I have had some trouble in finding the book-plate I promised to send you. I have just run across some belonging to Dr. Edward McGuire which are identical with the exception of the name, and I take pleasure in enclosing you several copies.

Very truly,

Dear Sir,

With thanks, I enclose the Cabell and Dove plates and the Wellford label at a cost to you of $1.10. So far as I knew, only two Richmond medical men use book-plates and I have this morning a promise from both to send me examples for you. One of these- and I believe, both- I made some years ago. Both are armorial. I do not know any surgeons out of Richmond who used plates, but I shall take every means of finding out about the matter and reporting. In general, current plates would cost me nothing but a little trouble and there would be no charge for sending them for you. I regret to say that I knew nothing of the MacKenzie plate. Where did MacKenzie live?

Very Respectfully,

Dr. J. L. Miller,    John Hart.
