Mr. William Hampton, son of Mr. Thaddeus Shortridge Hampton, born in Cabell Co. Va. in 1808, died in Boyd Co. Ky. July 25, 1827 and is buried at Hampton City. Aug. 31, 1828 he married Sarah Buchanan, dau. of William T. Buchanan. Her father was a second cousin of Rev. James Buchanan, and was born at Lancaster, Pa. In early manhood he moved to Howard Co. Ky., then to Montgomery Co. near Mt. Sterling, finally to Lawrence Co., where he owned a farm of 800 to a thousand acres on the Big Sandy River about 18 miles above the mouth. Buchanan Chapel, Buchanan P.O. in this neighborhood was named for him. He died at the age of 93.

Walter Hampton, son of Wm. A., has a large number of deeds for lands recorded in Co. between 1825 and 1850. Also several other Hampton deeds in this period.

Dr. Henry Hampton built his house about 1840 on what was long known as the Holdredge place, in front of where Marshall College now stands. About the year 1854 he was a victim of a duel which he fought with Col. George Shortridge. He spent all his fortune in fighting this case in court, the Holdredge-Buffington case getting the bulk of it. They sold the mansion house.

He owned the land on the Sugar River above Byam and the site where the handsome old brick residence stands that is now owned by Mr. Charlesmen.
"There lived in Prince William Co., Va., a brother of Dr. Henry Hampton, known as "Mule Billy Hampton," kind hospitable and a friend to all of his name. He lived to a great age. Of his descendants: a son, Frances Richard, his daughter."

Mrs. Sarah Brown was a half sister of Dr. Henry Hampton, and mother of Jack, Richard, John, Judge Geo. W. Brown of Culpeper, Dr. Benjamin Brown, Harry, Thomas, Peter, who was Mr. Brown's heir near Bull Run. Viz. his daughter, Betty married Henry Clark." — Mrs. Hampton.

This is a mistake; Sarah Hampton was married to Rev. Newman Brown prior to 1775. Her father did not marry his 2nd wife Mrs. Eliza Gano till after 1764 — just 14 yrs before his death.
