Cabell County Deeds

Dec. 8, 1798. Jno. Hampton, Jr., Fanny of Krakower Co. V°, sold for $200 to brother Henry Hampton of same county then share of land on Big Sandy Creek, derived by the father Henry Hampton of P.V. William A. Hef. Recorded in Cabell Co., Nov. 27, 1790. (Book A p. 14.)

Mar. 9, 1801 Henry Hampton of Kanawha Co. V°, bound himself to John Miller for $150 V°, etc., as a guarantee of title to 100 acres of land against Robert cotton's soldier claim. (Note a p. 28.)

June 9, 1803, Jno. Samuels to Henry Hampton's heirs 400 acres soldier claim for service in 1784 under Col. Washington, #40. (Book A p. 112.)

Dec. 29, 1811. #1, Patrick Connor to Henry Hampton both Cabell Co. 400 acres granted formerly to John Jackson's son-in-law, 1754 (Book A, page 196.)

Aug. 22, 1814, #1, George Hollingsworth to Henry Hampton Sr. of Cabell Co. 100 acres part of lot Jones claim for services in 1754 (p. 412. Book A.)
Dr. Anthony Hampton probably received the greater part of his medical education from his father. He had a similar pedigree to another Governor named Thomas, but instead of being born in Virginia, he was born in Indiana.

He was said to be a second-rate physician. Rev. Ezra C.
Thornton preached Dr. Hampton's funeral sermon. Although he was a Methodist, he was also a Baptist. Both were Masons, which order conducted the services.

His youngest son, John, died in the Asylum at Lexington.

Preston Hampton was in Cabell Co.
Dec. 17, 1839. Eunice Harrison Wilson
Olivia Hampton was in Cabell Co.
Sept. 14, 1832.

Oct. 19, 1826. Levi Shepherd, wife
Elizabeth, sold to Anthony Hampton
90 acres in Cabell Co.

Nov. 14, 1827. Anthony Hampton, wife
Suzanna, sold to John Kegler, all of Cabell Co. 121 acres for $70. 13. 8. & 4. 400.

Estate in Cabell Co.
Anthony Hampton Dec. 10, 1877
35 acres

Mar. 10, 1821
31 9
in the early thirties was commanded as Attorney & Circuit Judge in Alabama. He migrated from Vermillion County, Illinois, to Dakota.

Mrs. Hampton died in Dec. 1849 of consumption on her farm in the 6th Mile of Big Sandy, eight miles from the mouth of the river, leaving a husband—

1. Wade
2. George Shortridge
3. William
4. Henry (M.D.)
5. Levi F.
6. Eliza M.
7. Eliza J. infant
8. Louisa J. infant

Mrs. Malinda Hampton married 2nd Leonard Sharp in Dec. 1821, and removed to Monroe Co., Mo., where they had born a son & three daughters.

V. Wade Hampton, son of Malinda) was born June 1804 & married his cousin Sarah Brown dau. of Richard Brown, in Cabell Co., Va., April 9, 1830. They had issue a son & daughter—

Columbia T. Columbia Hampton.

He owned a great deal of land where Ashland, Ky., now stands and his child ren were born here in this old block house that was not standing a few years ago. In 1846-7 he moved his family around Clark Co. by wagon train from Ky. to Santa Fe, New Mexico, was nearly a year making the trip. Settled in the Sacramento or San Joaquin river where wild roots were plentiful. "He had the family practically at himself and grew quite wealthy."

"He had the family practically at
In 1800 he removed from New Mexico to California and settled on a ranch where Stockton, Cal., now stands. When the boy grew up he sold his land there and purchased another ranch near Los Angeles. He died there in the spring of 1874.

His daughter, Columbia, married a Mr. Miller, editor of a paper in Quincy, Ill. The son, Columbia H. Miller, went to California with his father when he first came west in 1849.

(2) George Shortridge Hampton, b. in 1806 in Cabell Co., Va., 2nd son of Worthington Shortridge Hampton, died in Des Moines, Iowa. At the age of 70 yrs. he died in Des Moines, where he was esteemed as a public benefactor.

He was a lawyer and at an early age settled in Montgomery County, Ky., where for a number of years he was Circuit Clerk of the County. He was six feet five inches tall and weighed two hundred and fifty pounds. During his war he served as Gen. Rosecrans's staff. His first wife was a Miss Sarah Johnson of Mr. Sterling, Ky., whom they lived until 1836-37. She left no son.

He married later Mrs. Anne F. Hepburn, daughter of Dr. Henry Clewell, of Ticonderoga, N. Y., and issue: George, Catharine, and Columbus. A son of Mrs. Hampton by her first husband is John Hepburn, Solicitor to the US Treasury.

In 1875 he entered to Congress.
Dr. Henry Hamilton, 2nd son of Henry Hamilton, Jr. President of Princeton College, born 1750—died in 1834 at the home of Surgeon Dr. Anthony Hamilton of Sandy River, Nicholas and Wayne Co. W.Va. A former biographer of his says: "Dr. Hamilton was classically educated, of fine personal appearance, handsome, and a giant intellectually. He practised medicine successfully and was a surgeon in the War of 1812.

Dr. Henry Hamilton need a large amount of property in land he required from his father in 1778.

Oct. 3, 1787, Henry Hamilton, Sr. wife Elizabeth, of Leeds Parish, Pr. William Scott & Drummond Webster 228 acres of land in that county.

Henry Hamilton then removed his family to Fauquier where he continued there till 1800.

Dec. 8, 1778 he purchased from his brother Wm. Hamilton his half of the soldiers claim lands located in Big Sandy River to Ohio River, described above by their father Henry 1st. Sr. in 1778. Deed witnessed by Wm. Hamilton and Wm. Springs.

In 1800, Dr. Hamilton removed his family from Fauquier to the 800 acres of land this inheritted from his father, and built his home near the site of Marshall College situating 2 miles from the Ohio from the Big Sand River. Between 1805 & 1810 he purchased something like a