NEW HAMPSHIRE Papers. Correspondence of Dr. Levi Bartlett, of Kingston, N. H., son of Josiah Bartlett, the Signer. Sixty-seven letters, 4to and folio, 1758-1822. It is especially rich in surgeons of the army of the Revolution and has also letters of Nathaniel Peabody, John T. Gilman, Dr. Hall Jackson, Joseph Pearson, John Langdon, Dr. John C. Warren and other prominent men. Many with interesting contents.
Dr. Maxwell Barber, of Charleston, is visiting his mother after a prolonged stay in the European war zone. During the past several months Dr. Barber was with the Red Cross in Poland doing relief work among the refugees rescued from Bolshevist Russia, at Dvinsk and Lemberg.
