I think you will get these things from them very soon. They are waiting for a little more information.

In the meantime, I send you a little chart that Mrs. Alice Brown made for me when I began to make a record. I should like to have all returned sometime soon in no hurry. I want to write to Stokes C. N. C. to find out more of the Scallop family.
A dear must have been an intelligent woman and a strong character. These may be other things in your past later, but I can't lay hands on it just now. I may write again.

Yours,

Julia Babson.

In future I can't expect to get as fast at seventy six, as if I were younger.
Dr. J. L. Miller

Dear Sir,

...your Q 4 is just to hand and in reply will say that I have examined all the records of...
If you don't succeed in getting the Brown and Brown data, I will be able to get it for you.

I ordered some days ago a book room to be published by the Colonial Dames of Va. index of all wills in Va. in which perhaps enters Francis James. If you would like to look it over, I will send it to you. Don't know how soon it will be out.

If you should happen to want a copy of the genealogical chart of James would be glad to make you a copy from one in our old family books. This book was put in 1876 but the chart of one was copied in about 1750 or thence.

Don't hesitate if there is anything I can do for you here.

Yours truly,

My dear Dr. Miller:

I have been expecting to receive the prospectus of your book on the Hampton family during the last year, but as it has not come, I thought perhaps you had lost my address. I shall be very much interested in it, I.

By-the-way, did the Hampton family have a coat-of-arms?

Yours truly,

Dr. J. L. Miller,
Thomas, W.Va.

Dear Dr. Miller,

I wish to acknowledge your very interesting letter of February 22nd and to notify you of my change of address. By-the-way, there is a man by the name of S. Wade Hampton, whose address is 1224 North G Street, Tacoma, Washington, who is, I understand, a direct descendent of Gen. Wade Hampton. I thought perhaps you might like to communicate with him, if you have not already done so.

Thanking you for the information you have given me, and looking forward with interest to the publication of the book, I am,

Very truly yours,
