Wife Brown and three 1/2 sons were placed on Pocahontas River, Stafford Co. (now Prince William) from Jimmison Book in Apr 1717 bushing near Mount Independence Hill.

P.O. a few miles south of Washington's wife's name not known.
On July 24, 1744 these three orphan boys - then "Dinem" III, John Brown and Geo Brown vice president under the guardianship of Geo. Bryan Cussett. Harriett's guilt - 11220 0-p. 571. P. was m.
Apr. 17, 1746 John Brown incorporated to Richard Blemm Jr. Frederick Chilton, This shows that John Brown was born March 25, 1720. All have them taken also of ye. Brown to the author of the B. F. P. W. Co. viz.
James E. Brown"Alden of majority, O who descendants for the eldest son William Brown in 1724-1729. He married Elizabeth Bushman and wrote about 1757-67 8/24.

D. J. Miller

Thomas

W. Va.
The law firm of Brown & Martin has fallen into worthy hands of John Brown Jr., partner. George Brown Martin, the son of my oldest sister, Hannah.
Thomas Richard Brown was born at Pikeville, Ky. June 2, 1855, and was consequently at his death 54 years and nineteen days old. He was a son of the late Judge George N. Brown. With his parents at the age of 5 he removed to Catlettsburg where he has resided ever since. He obtained his early education in the schools of this city, afterward graduating with honor from the University of Virginia, and from a law school in Louisville, shortly afterward being admitted to the bar, and has since practiced his profession in all the courts of the state and the federal courts. He was the senior member of the law firm of Brown & Marton ranking among the leading lawyers of the state, and enjoyed a very extensive and lucrative practice. December 11, 1878, he married Miss Mary Lackey, daughter of the late Greenville Lackey, and to this union three children were born, all of whom together with Mrs. Brown, are living, as follows: Alexander Lackey Brown, Mrs. Quinn Poage, wife of Robert Poage, of Ashland, and Miss Florence Brown. Mr. Brown joined the Presbyterian church in 1872, since which time he has lived a consistent Christian life, and for a long time has been a veritable pillar in the First Presbyterian church of this city. The year
Dear Mr. Miller,

I feel like on my cognizance I've scribbled up these pages dreadfully—but I wanted to much letter help you, I've really done my best. Above all I appreciate your interest in our branch of the Ransom family. Some day shouldn't that come out? It from I hope to be able to pursue. So far the history of Kentucky and Kentuckiana. I referred to written in a note compiled by E. Poole & J. Polk Johnson and been sent to me from my nephew's office, in St. Louis, from which I quote so much for I do not know him who wrote it but I know it is the same feeling of the time in regard to my brother Thomas Mr. Brown. The name of Thomas Mr. Brown is one which in battling about during his lifetime as the symptom of sterling worth and strict integrity. As such after death it endures as a precious legacy to his family and so held in lasting esteem and I by the great body of the fellow citizens. It is the lesson of his life which entitles his name to a place in this work and makes the record honorable alike to him & the community in which he lived.
There's a long sketch—of course I know its art sentiment, but I quote the other sentence—"in remembrance of his services the handsome new High School building has an inscription in granitic facing the words 'Thomas R. Barrow.' I would like to add—there was an endowment in his name, one third his family has ought to do with it—Thomas R. Barrow was born June 2nd 1857—died June 20th 1909. I sell Pamela 2 claim a part of that.