Mr. Joseph Miller,

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter asking about the old family Bible of Mr. Hampton, I would say that my mother thinks it was given to Oliver Hampton.

I send you some leaves taken from a small Bible of Mr. Hampton's which gives his immediate family record, also an obituary notice.
which my mother would like to have again. She had written down some time in the past recollections of things told her by Mrs Hampton and Mrs Walton Rice relating to the early history of the Hampton family and had given it to "Billy" Hampton, but she thinks it was misplaced or lost. You could write him in regard to it.

With kind regards to yourself and family.

Yours Truly

Mary Mason
My Dear Friend,

I feel like setting down this evening to converse with you for a short time. And as we are devoid of the privilege of seeing one another, having a social chat, I will have to resort to the silent medium of the pen.

What a happy thing it is, that we have this privilege. You may think I am expressing myself in this way. Give me a half a chance I will see all the bright spots that is to be seen.

I am quite happy this week and enjoying good health. Tending garden cleaning off yard now. I was very sick the day after I got home, and did not get well until Saturday. Had to take medicine but I did not send for a Dr. We have had a little sickness here this spring, but not many, not nearly so well for two or three weeks. I hope you are still improving and able to work on your garden.

I got home before dark that evening, they were looking for me, all make quite a fuss over me. Little Hellen was my company down the hill. She is one cute little creature.

There have been a few sicknesses, one of them that left here this spring, have all been taken prisoner. I think they were taken before they were gone a week. We have a good many rebel boys and pretty sick ones. Some that professed to be strong union men when I left, here are strong rebels now. It was Sue Powell's farm that was burned, the night the Bridge was at Alton. There has been none burned on the river yet, but more threats.

Mr. Toal was going along the road, and Alice called him in, and she came in and they were married. She went back to her soap making and he to his grinding. That is the way those do that many years.
Mrs. Shepard is here, has been for longer than a week, goes home to day but is coming back in a week, to stay all summer. She sends her love to you, says she wants to be here when you come down. She is as lovely as ever. Says she is glad I am going to stay here this summer. She must have some person to cut up with. She is a great old woman.

Mrs. Rodenbarr is in from the West. I have not seen her yet. She is a strong fellow. Says Mr. Baldwin lost all of his possessions all together.

Boyd says he will not ask me to stay here longer than September. He is going west in June. To hunt some more in Indiana. I think he is bound for Indiana. I say next month as I am bound for the West. Dick and Julia, but I think I have seen enough to love to swim, if I can have a little more strength, and that I am gaining, so look out. I cannot tell anything about going to the City until I hear from Sam. Tell him that I think I will be down the first of next week and then I will write him.

Tell Mr. Hays to write to her. I will write her, give her my love, and tell her to keep cool.

Tell Sally, I will write to her by and by. I will look for a letter from Julia's own girl, then my love and tell them we will expect them this summer.

Don't come to a close and write a few lines to Mrs. Ellis, about her folks, I met Stokely, and she gave me the news of the family, I shall expect to hear from you soon. Oh, you want to go to the City when I do.
