This must be my excuse, for what may have seemed to come to be a very bad breach of etiquette.

Trusting, however, that my past association with you

Ben McFarland Woods,

Dear Sir,

Enclosed herewith are a list of Jackson's Battery experiences, in which myself and all the members of the battery have the most pleasing recollections, with this preface I request that you bear my testimony to Mr. J. P. Miller, of this place, of the old V. E. Revolutionary Stock who have yourself and most V. E. Officers who have such antecedents, take pride in their ancestors.

He is enthusiastic on V. E. history and as a relic issue to his profession in which he has high standing, spends his short vacations in searching old V. E. records, and is thus engaged at this time on his presence in your noted court. He has to a thantering for some farm life having been reared on a farm in the Big Runnaha Valley, and thinks that if some place near your city where his boys when they become of proper age may have the advantages not only the educational life of and, of the social education, but breathe a spirit of the social life of and, when the shall have grown, and the opportunities of more getting are probably better for him, that then he would...
Life to pursue life and his scenery amidst more enlarged surroundings.
You probably find him reserved but if your time will allow it, I should like you to give the benefit of your judgment on any matter suggested to you.
I will most easily inform by a short summary of how time is serving myself and dear wife, who call upon you at one time, I forbear further writing.

Sincerely your friend,

J.W. Hamilton
Dear Sir,

Thomas M. Va June 8th 1809

As I went to post office this morning I thought of my old and dear friend Gen. Morgan, who was second in our battery, and the most loved officer of the Kit Carson cavalry. I thought it would be pleasant for you to meet him. He is a man of commanding influence not only in that county but the entire State, and is really a genial friend and brother of this companion fellow men. He has held the office of Postmaster in that Post more than 30 years. Refusing nominations for higher office because the people requested it. So if you have line and try and make peace for it - you will find him a most genial gentleman.

It has not been a fine but is cloudy. I was not shaven today. But it is warm. Pondia is getting really to go. Mrs. Martin to visit friends and will take this with her to post office. I shall sign my first letter -writ letter and will take this with her to post office.

My dear Cousin John,

I wrote you some time ago mays to the Hampton Family tree as I understood from Cousin M. L. D'Orville Shreveport La. that your Father used to keep the family records. I know you remember me on your visits to...
I again when I was a child I would sit on your knee. Now Comem Day please help me in the work. I want the records so bad. I want some but I would like all your or any one you could fell Presto to get them from. Would also love to hear how you are. No one in my family writes to me anymore. I know so little about Hampton line. Poor. Dears Papa (Ned Hampton)
Passed away last month. He was being in poor health so long that it was just a gradual wearing out of the whole system. He was supposed to go on patiently that he was fully prepared to go. Five families were living with him in San Antonio. Marcella a daughter by his first marriage the girls were with him. My husband and I went over in an automobile to the funeral. My Bro. Wade is married.
And has one little girl. They live in Texas. Justin lives in Chicago. His mother will join him there soon as they can close up their business in San Antonio.

Now Cousin John I'd greatly appreciate a letter from you even tho' you can not furnish me with any facts concerning the family. My husband and I have been...
