MEMORIAL MEETING OF BAR.

Resolutions of Respect to Memory of Late Jas. H. Brown Adopted.

Pursuant to adjournment the Kanawha Bar met in the United States Court room at 3:30 p.m., yesterday afternoon to act upon the resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Judge James H. Brown, which a committee was appointed to prepare and report to this meeting, with Thomas L. Broun as chairman and D. C. Gallaher secretary. The resolutions reported are as follows, and were unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That by the death of the Hon. James H. Brown the Bar of Kanawha has lost its oldest and most learned member and the State and county one of our most useful and honored citizens. He was not only very learned and distinguished in his profession, but was an able and upright Judge. In personal and public affairs he was a man of sterling honesty and interpid courage and ever vigilant in promoting by every fair and honorable means the best interests of his community, his county and his State. His life and professional career furnish an example of probity, energy and success well worthy of the highest emulation. Though ever courteous and generous to his brethren of the Bar, yet he was ever faithful to and tenacious of every right of his clients.

"It is difficult to adequately express our appreciation of his many virtues and noble qualities, but we desire to here place upon record this humble though insufficient tribute to his memory as a man, a citizen and a lawyer.

"W. MOLLOHAN
G. E. PRICE
MALCOLM JACKSON
H. C. McWHORTER
E. W. WILSON
THOMAS L. BROUN."

Remarks were made by Judge H. C. McWhorter, Hon. E. W. Wilson, Geo. E. Price, W. Mollohan and M. F. Stiles.

On motion, the Chair appointed committees to present the resolutions to the several courts. The Chair thereupon appointed the following: W. Mollohan for the Supreme Court of Appeals; E. L. Buttrick, for United States Circuit and District Courts, and E. W. Wilson, for the Kanawha Circuit Court.

On motion, it was ordered that the proceedings be published in the city papers and that the secretary furnish a copy of the resolutions to the family of the deceased.
The remains of Judge James H. Brown were interred today in Spring Hill cemetery.

Impressive funeral services were conducted at the Kanawha Presbyterian church this morning at 10 o'clock by the Rev. Rhuel H. Merrill, of that church, assisted by Dr. J. C. Barr, of the First Presbyterian church, and Rev. Dr. J. C. Johnson, of the Baptist church.

A great multitude of Charleston people turned out to pay them their last tribute of respect to the aged jurist, and the occasion presented a solemn aspect as the large concourse of friends followed the remains of the deceased to Spring Hill Cemetery, where interment took place. The honorary pall bearers were Dr. J. C. Cotton, Dr. J. P. Hale, Dr. J. M. Staunton, Dr. A. E. Summers, Dr. J. H. Rogers, Maj. T. L. Brown, Judge H. C. McWhorter and C. C. Lewis.

The active pall bearers were Malcolm Jackson, W. A. MacCorkle, J. D. Baines, S. S. Green, Geo. E. Price, E. W. Wilson, E. W. Knight and D. C. Gallaher.
Feb. 28th 1861.

Dr. J. E. Miller,

My dear Sir,—I hope you received a letter that I sent some time after I received yours of Feb. 15th. I want to thank you again for it, and to tell you what is being done about it. Mrs. Barber has written to her orphan in Germany in regard to the Old Bible.
Which was given to his mother. She has asked him for a type written copy of everything written in it, and she has written her chief in Kentucky regarding the close of Sarah Hampton deaths and plans of burial. I expect to something to send you from these sources soon. Mr. Saidley has visited the old burial places in Caldwell Co. and she cannot remember having seen Sarah Hampton grave, although she has seen those of Matilda Scales, parents and others. I think I told you that Mr. Saidley is now an invalid, he will be 78 years at the spring. I have not been home for months and Mrs. Saidley is much occurred in coming for there.

I hope that Mr. Mears made of your Hampton suite and are giving me to each of Judge J. H. Brown's children. I think Mrs. Jean Brown is making more coffee so that she can give me to each of J. H. Brown's children. I am going to take lunch with Mrs. Fitzgerald tomorrow and expect to carry out to a mandarin of J. H. Brown's notes while there.
I have not seen Mr. F. Brown, but his daughter tells me that he is not as indifferent as Dr. Lee appears. She has an envelope of notes &c. and I think you will receive them soon. She says her father has many old letters written to Dr. Benj. Brown, by his father, uncle you like a rock and his wife's, and one of John Brown's monument. I think I cannot send them until when Dr. Brown's daughters were very much in and in your letter to one old printer book.
One of them said she had been in Gloucester Co. and she had seen Mr. John Rogers and other places refund it in it. Both of the daughters want to know if you relationship. Are you descended from a brother of Sarah Hampton. Do you ever come to Charleston? They would be very glad to meet you and I am sure that I shall. If you ever come, I hope you will bring the prayer book with you. Do you know what a traveler Mr. J. B. had been? He went to Europe with his wife and son, then to the Mediterranean trip with his wife and two daughters. Next he Panama Canal with his wife and son and then to Iceland and Norway; then around the world, then through the Canal and around 3 A.
But I do not want you to publish anything about these trips or about him at all tell you get information of someone of this family. I am sure you will hear from them soon. I said you today some "clippings" that belong to Mrs. Barber, I hope you send me

Some thing more. Mrs. Barber remembers hearing her father speak of remembering his grandmother sitting with a Bible on her knees and she thinks that it Bible is probably in English and hopes to hear from it. I find in this house several books containing biographical sketches. Prominent Men of Va. (1890) has sketches of J. H. B and his son J. H. B. Men of Va. and Progressive Men of Va. (1905) contain something of Dr. Barber but nothing of the Baskins. History of Charleston and Kanawha County.
