Dear Mr. Hampton,

I'm sorry to write you that Wade isn't doing well. This morning we were badly scared. While eating his breakfast he became delirious. After a while it came from his stomach and I will write you a letter in a few days.

Yours very truly,
Paul Hardmans.

Dear Dr Miller:

I have before me your letter of Jan 17 1930, in which you discussed the possibilities of finishing your book about the Hamptons. Both Captain Everhart and I are deeply concerned in this matter, and hope you will keep in touch with us. I have hesitated to write to you, knowing how very busy you are. But we should be greatly pleased if you could find time to drop me a line on the enclosed card, telling what progress has been made or is in prospect.

I am enclosing a photographic reproduction of a seal given to my ancestor Gray Bynum by his brother in law Wade Hampton the first. It is of course a likeness of himself. You will also be interested to know that I have now a photostat of the marriage bond of Elizabeth Hampton and James Harrison. I have collected a good deal of Hampton information from the records, but I have not gone far into the records because I knew how carefully you had already covered the ground.

Captain Everhart is still in Europe. I hear from him occasionally.

Yours with high regard

Curtis Bynum
