This Indenture, made the first day of October in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred Forty-Two.

Between John Hampton of the one part, and Thomas Hayes of the other part.

It is a condition of this indenture that John Hampton, in consideration of six hundred dollars lawful money, shall pay to the said Thomas Hayes, the sum of six hundred dollars, being the proceeds of a plantation called Thomasfield, consisting of three hundred and fifty acres of land, containing seven hundred and thirty-five acres more or less, lying on or near the line of Hampton patent in the County of Gloucester on the east side of Custisfield River, together with all houses, buildings, and improvements appertaining thereto, belonging.

And the said John Hampton doth assign, transfer, and convey unto the said Thomas Hayes, all right, title, and interest in and to the land, buildings, and improvements described herein, free from all claims and incumbrances.

Witnesseth: That the said John Hampton doth assign, transfer, and convey unto the said Thomas Hayes, all right, title, and interest in and to the land, buildings, and improvements described herein, free from all claims and incumbrances.

In Witness whereof, the said John Hampton have hereunto set their hands and seals, the first day of October, one thousand seven hundred forty-two.
