And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head. And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him. And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross. And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, A place of a skull, they gave him vinegar to drink, mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink. And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots. And sitting down, they watched him there: and set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. Then were there two thieves crucified with him: one on the right hand, and another on the left. And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, and saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself: if thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross. Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, and the scribes and elders, saying, Save thee, if thou be the Christ, the Son of God. The thieves also that were crucified with him, deriding him said these things. And Jesus said, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they cast lots for his vesture, dividing his garments amongst them. And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them scried, If he were a Christ, a King of Israel, would he have said these things? This was therescia a word among the Jews, to put him to silence. Then said one of the malefactors crucified with him, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise. And Jesus said unto him, Amen, I say unto thee, This day shalt thou be with me in paradise. And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the land, until the ninth hour. And at the ninth hour, Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? that is, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? And for a while there was darkness over all the land. And the veil of the temple was rent in twain. And it was about the ninth hour, and there was a cry, and the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the bottom to the top. And when the centurion behold, the earthquake, and the rocks, and the very stones, he received Jesus for the holy, knowing that he was the Son of God. And when even was come, he went out into a cavendish garden, called Gethsemani: and he sent forth his disciples, saying, Sit here while I go and pray. And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt. And there appeared an angel unto him, strengthening him. And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground. And when he rose up from prayer, he was thirsty, and saith unto his disciples, Can you drink of the cup that I shall drink? besides, shall you be able to bear the baptism which I shall bear? They said unto him, We can. And he said unto them, The cup that I drink, ye shall drink; and with regard to the baptism, that ye shall be baptized with. But to whom shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned, and ye have not lamented. Rejoice, O daughter of Sion, for thine iniquity is purged; stretch forth thine hand, and receive the poor; and he shall trust in the Lord. And he that was crucified beside him said, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art the Son of God? But the other answering said, Leave him alone. Let this be thy character. And they that were crucified with him cast reproaches upon him. And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, ELISHA SAITH: FATHER, INTO THY HANDS I commit my spirit. And one of the robbers, when he saw that he was saved in the same hour with Jesus, said unto him, Dost thou not fear God, seeing thou art the Son of God? And we indeed justly for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss. Then said Jesus, Truly, I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

Psalter of Psalms

Of David,

After the Translation of the Great Bible, Pointed as they are to be Sung or Said in Churches.

Morning Prayer.

Benedicite, quae Psal. I.

Let all the creatures bless the Lord: all things that serveth him shall praise his name, for he shall be great.

1. But his delight is in the law of the Lord: and in his word will he meditate day and night.

2. And he shall be like a tree planted by the water-side: that shall bring forth his fruit in due season.

3. His leaf also shall not wither: and whatsoever he doeth shall flourish.

4. As for the ungodly, it is not so with them: but they are like the chaff which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.

5. Therefore the ungodly shall not abide in the judgment: neither the sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6. But the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: and the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Quare fremunt gentes? Psal. II.

Why do the heathen so furiously rage together: and why do the people imagine a vain thing?

2. The kings of the earth stand up, and the rulers take counsel together: against the Lord, and against his Anointed.

3. Let us break their bonds asunder: and cast away their cords from us.

4. He that dwelleth in heaven shall laugh them to scorn: the Lord shall have them in derision.
