My very dear Friend,

Your kind letter has come to hand. I was very glad to hear of your comfort & success, but surprised at your not having received a letter from me the last year. In the immediate after Election day inquired of you of your different Affections. See if you had professed to receive advantage from my scribbles. It was to make it true by filling it running over field of action. But I believe I have forgotten it. No matter. I rejoice, that while I am decreasing your journals to the old Society, no lessening your esteem for them. I have the sublime joy of assuring you, that you are esteemed & respected by both the Societies. I consider it one of the felicities of my life, that God permitted me to have some agency in bringing success forward. The same wish to have that I did so little. Could you find some place, which would give you two or three hundred dollars per annum? I have no doubt that each of the Societies in Boston would employ you to the amount of 100 $ per year for a number of years. These Societies were never anomalous in the same for several ministers. The Miss. Miss. Society vote anually 6 or 100 to 6 or 7 ordained Ministers to preach there where they are. Mr. Egbert Smith, Williams, Warren &c. are of the number. I mean you will before receiving this learn from the Senatorries of both states, that you are again employed. I assign you Fairfax, Grinnell because I thought it would best accommodate you. May you live, if you should have...
of Mormonism and to him has always appeared to me to contain sound reason & pure faith. "If the Lord were disposed to destroy us could he show us such things as these? But when I began this paragraph I meant only to say that it is not wise to depend on future time, yet should I live & Moses go to college in a year or two, as I hope he will, possibly Elijah might come here with advantage to him & comfort to me. My dear boy, you must be diligent, upright, obedient to your parents. With these virtues you will find friends & comfort, & success.

My children are answering all my expectations; the youngest daughter is a credit to them. They are a vast comfort to me. They never make me ashamed, but often sing a hundred times every day. Moses might enter college this fall if he were old enough. He is a good scholar in Latin & Greek.

We are all as loving & affectionate as ever, & with great sincerity I am,

Your cordial friend,

S. Farish
Robbinston, Oct. 8 - 1807.

My Dear Friend, Dear Friend,

I just received yours of the 8th instant with all the cordiality which it was calculated to inspire. While listening to my feelings I became almost ready to extract an argument. But I think that, in such reflections, I wish to do that will come as a sure distress, any thing of an altogether as the responsible declaration of our common birth, but that is to the thought and not go back. I write you by the last mail, and still cannot feel satisfied to let the great hope without observing that there seems yours, you must be sensible that my situation as well as yours in relation to my family, must be altogether happy, but I have hoped that we have our and the same amount of consolation, and that which shall kindly notice and long will be sufficient to support us under all circumstances. You and my dear friend are in my heart continually and I say to my dear friend and to my most loving thee, how much of this goodness it would be very comfortable to doubt it in the thought.
I hope you will be left from every cause of anxiety. Do not want for anything you can obtain if you feel more money. I think that you can have it at Elizabethtown. I shall write him on this subject if I think there is not the least need of those measures. If I can now it will be all that is necessary for you to come as I will probably come. It will be my wish to come; you will readily accede. I shall be in much anxiety if circumstances should be such that any sacrifices in your judgment will be justifiable. You will not consult yourself unless I can satisfy that our principal concerns have taken so favorable a direction. I am glad that you can give so favorable an account of the boys, it seems as if they must be as useful with the importance of doing more as well as they can. I rejoice with you in your readiness in case of this necessity. It will not do to encourage everything that has a tendency to injure them with the importance of the condition and the circumstances of life. Give my love to them and tell them not to act lightly or things of the greatest importance. I hope and pray that they may be guided well. My labors seem to be not what they should be. I have been, as they have not apparently been attended with success in pleasing persons to God. I could have... withdrew and to slay for me. I went for nothing this could affect, but have been treated with this charge.

Hindings by all I know nothing about this man and subject to justice. His family must decide. I would have been glad to know someone. Batton Belton knows it with your brother might. I respect this in God's name.

one more hope that remains until God. Than you as one join and the important decision before I but you in this land. I do it to us wrong. I offer more unacceptable advice that I know myself to help must shall remain together forever in this world of light. You will see that I have written to Joseph Edgar this letter, but I shall write again to our help to stay. We must adjust difficulties will attend every thing may that come from one man and must leave the count. As for the words I speak. I shall give him no liberty to go to any other church. I hope you will describe your anxious about him for what will they are. Notting shall be wronging that can come to and him

I must state, tell my dear children I love them dearly and I must be loved and be kind to them. Mother my dear confide the case. If the writing is real wrong.

my hands and you must be some left. But every thing you have to do done and support. But nothing this control. But what is this cattle go and the sheep. And you mean what I will come. I have of your own and I hope to be. Confide your them. And what you say and kill them.